Reviews

It is one of the most popular publications. It really is filled with knowledge and wisdom. It has been designed in an exceedingly straightforward way and it is merely soon after I finished reading this pdf by which I actually transformed me, affected the way in my opinion.

Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from War and Christianity From the Russian Point of View: Three Conversations Vladimir Solovyof, the author of this book, is Russia s greatest philosopher and one of the greatest of her poets, a serene and happy writer. He was bom in 1853 and died in 1901, that is, he flourished in Russia during the same years that Nietzsche lived in Germany. He was a seeker and also a seer, a thinker and also a singer. His life is not marked by irritability, and it did not culminate in mental and psychic collapse as did the life of Nietzsche. Probably life was easier for a man of genius in Russia than in Germany - there are wider spaces there, more freedom, more tenderness between man and man, less materialism, less selfishness, less to send one mad. Solovyof came from a happy home and of a literary family. His father, Serge Mikhalovitch Solovyof, was a historian; his mother, a Little Russian of old family and culture, was proud to remind her children of a kinsman who had been a great philosopher in his day. At home there was an atmosphere of real things - never any of the cheap wit and vulgarism and mental meanness that so often sterilise the creative intelligence of otherwise wonderful children.
