Xulon Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Designed to bring people back to the basics of the Word of God, Crying Wisdom will challenge your thoughts whether you re an atheist or have been a Christian for years. Covering a wide variety of topics, it will force you to think about things that our culture has blinded us to. With an abundance of scriptural references and examples that anyone can relate to, Crying Wisdom brings light to the dark corners of your mind. This is one book everyone should have in their library. Sal has been teaching Bible studies for over 10 years. He is well traveled and has spoken in several different churches in the United States and Europe. Always ready to discuss any spiritual topic, Sal is never one to pull punches or regard feelings over delivering truth. Despite his reputation as standing incredibly firm in his convictions and willingness to bluntly address issues others are not, Sal has always remained humble enough to receive correction when the truth is spoken. He believes it is this characteristic that has blessed him to be able to stand strong in truth and continue to grow in God. Sal currently resides in Italy where he believes he is called to minister to the military and local communities.
