Xlibris, 2012. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: This book of poetry is the beginning of the culmination of a promise that Alma L. C. Jones, (" Mrs. Alma ") a beloved educator, made to her students before she retired. She had always told her " babies ", as she called her students, that she would write a book one day, after retiring thus, the volume that you hold in your hands. This book is comprised of sketches from a myriad of memories, events, and people who have shaped Alma into who she is. Of course, as with any literary work, it contains a healthy dose of ideas from the wonderful world of her " what if " imagination. Lastly, but most importantly, since she has always had an intimate relationship with GOD, she has shared with you, some of the joys of that relationship. She has painted for you some of the most painful, poignant and soul stirring moments in her life. While our viewpoint may be different from hers, no one can read this volume of poetry and not be touched by the brush strokes of feeling that flowed from this poet's pen. While she is a novice to writing poetry, Alma is an old hand at loving it! She fondly remembers the thought provoking discussions that took place in her junior high English class and in her high school literature class. She says that she loved the feeling of being able to walk through the chambers of a poet's mind and of being able to view the world from his/her perspective. Taking the poet's thought processes and figuring out possible hidden meanings was another aspect of reading poetry that she enjoyed and still does. She enjoys literary creating, whether...
