Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Considered an expert in his field, Tim Beckwith has been playing golf since he was seven. The lessons he learned on the course became ingrained and he considers the game of golf a lesson on life as well. These lessons became all the more poignant at the birth of his first child. Wanting to pass on these all important lessons, Tim wrote a letter to his son and by the time his child was two years old, The Front Nine was complete. A list of life lessons learned on and off the golf course, The Front Nine is a message from Tim to his son. With chapters entitled, Play Fair and Temper, Temper, The Front Nine is a tool for all golfers of any level as every chapter ends with a practical golf lesson as well as the life lesson. Tim believe that the tenets of good sportsmanship translate everywhere and hopes that even if his son never picks up a club, he ll appreciate the lessons outlined in The Front Nine.
