Terrorist Invasion of the South of England

By Doreen M. Bowers

Indepenpress Publishing Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Terrorist Invasion of the South of England, Doreen M. Bowers, This is a story about an imaginary war on British soil. Hassan, a wealthy Arab, was educated at a private school in Britain, and continued his education at a British University. Whilst in Britain he made a few friends. He was often racially abused by his peers. He returned home, after receiving his degree, determined to take revenge on the British nation. Hassan's wealth buys the help of other groups from around the world with a reason to despise the Brits. Terrorists from different countries obtain work in hospitals in the South of Britain and two farms are purchased with Hassan's money where terrorists are employed. Terrorists infiltrate the South of England and are welcomed into the community.
