Reviews

A brand new electronic book with a new standpoint. It is written in basic phrases rather than confusing. It's been designed in an extremely basic way which is merely right after I finished reading through this publication where basically altered me, change the way I believe.

Liguori Publications,U.S., United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Revised ed.. 208 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Contemporary political venues have put religious belief at the forefront of our thinking. Yet, we live in a world where religion has become a tool people can use to their advantage rather than a means of growing closer to God. In this revised edition of In Search of Belief, Sister Joan Chittister challenges readers to reflect upon whether they truly live what they say they believe or whether they have created their own images of God to suit whatever is convenient for their personal and/or social situations. With a new foreword by Tom Roberts (National Catholic Reporter) and a new Introduction by the author, this fresh edition examines the Apostles Creed phrase-by-phrase, offering challenging interpretations of its familiar themes and a provocative way of understanding--and expressing--its tenets. Paperback Testimonials Chittister s meditations on the mysteries that her belief affirms in the Creed are rich. She cautions that disbelief in God inevitably leads to a myopic affirmation of one s own divinity, and she repeats the ancient caveats against creating God in our own image, or believing that a human being is able to grasp God intellectually.Her characterization of heaven is both refreshing and challenging.Her reflections on the annunciation and incarnation soar with hope as she affirms the reality of miracles, the active presence of God who fills human flesh with an insatiable capacity for the divine. -- America Magazine A refreshing and contemporary analysis of the true meaning of the Creed. Honest and thought provoking, In Search of Belief calls us to a spiritual adulthood.Not for the spiritually faint-hearted. -- Edwina Gately Each age has those who understand more deeply than most the essence of belief and the need...
