In response to a congressional request, GAO analyzed the Department of Defense's (DOD) proposed modifications to title IV of the Department of Defense Reorganization Act of 1986. GAO found that DOD proposed: (1) a minimum 3-year tour for joint duty assignments to afford more qualified officers the opportunity for command tours; (2) to reduce the minimum and average tour length for general duty officers to allow a greater number of officers to qualify for senior leadership positions; (3) to restrict officers' promotion tracking following completion of their joint assignments; (4) to compare all officers in joint assignments against all officers in the same grade and category; (5) to designate 250 in-service positions as joint assignments if they provided significant experience in joint matters; (6) to authorize the Secretary of Defense to waive the sequencing requirement for qualification as a joint specialist; and (7) to change the delegation of authority for designating joint specialists. Great electronic book and useful one. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. You can expect to like the way the author composed this ebook.

This ebook is indeed gripping and fascinating. It is definitely simplistic but excitement from the 50 % of your book. You won't sense monotony at any time of your own time (that's what catalogs are for relating to should you check with me).
