TRAINING WITH TREATS WITH RELATIONSHIP BASIC TRAINING LOCKED IN TREATS CAN BECOME AN EXCELLENT WAY TO ENHANCE GOOD COMMUNICATION ANOTHER EBOOK NUGGET FROM THE SOUL OF A HORSE VOLUME 4

14 Hands Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 80 pages. Dimensions: 7.9in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. Many trainers dislike the use of treats for training. Some even say we shouldn't talk to our horses. Training should all be based upon body language, just as the horses use with each other in the herd. We believe that the horse's language is important because once the horse understands that you know his language, once you have given him the choice of trusting you, of being in relationship with you, and once you have proven your leadership to the horse then he has a clear capability to grow and understand our language. To learn things he might not have ever had the chance to learn if he had remained in a herd somewhere. Sort of like you grew when you went off to school. I believe that horses love that opportunity to grow with you, and have fun with you. . . to learn new things and be rewarded in a positive way that they truly enjoy. I also believe that they love being able to speak to you, to initiate conversation. Like Cash does when he walks up and offers his big toothy smile, saying, Might I have a treat please Teaching the horse that you understand his herd language - the use of pressure and release of that pressure - is a must in the beginning. But we now know that communication increases exponentially, both in comprehension and speed of learning, when treats are strategically used. I suppose it comes from so many years working with Benji before horses, and finally drawing the conclusion that whatever a dog can learn, a horse can learn as well because, with treats, they both want to learn. . And the horse will be just as...
