LePage du Pratz landed in America. in company with about eight hundred others forwarded by the Company of the West he had come to this country to settle. He first located near New Orleans, where Blenville was then just starting a new settlement, but the situation of his grant proving unhealthy, he shortly afterwards moved up to Natchez. There he secured a farm, on which he spent eight of the sixteen years he was in this country. He had served in the army in Germany and had received a air education. He was of a speculative turn of mind, fond of theorizing and always on the alert for information. While at Natchez he collected and transmitted to Paris no less than three hundred plants used by the Indians as remedies. He cultivated the friendship of his Indian neighbors and studied their habits and their language. In 1758 he published at Paris his...
